

Why gamble with your home and auto insurance?

Review your coverage, don't eliminate it.

Having been in business since 1923, the one thing we've learned is that nobody wins when you're underinsured. That's why we've always welcomed our customers to come down to the agency, conveniently located at 1534 Dorchester Avenue, to review your policies—always at no charge to you.

During tough economic times, it's important to get the most value for your dollar. Especially when it comes to keeping the considerable investment you have in your home and auto safe. To that end, we extend an open invitation to you, our valued customer, to review your current policies. We'll even look at estimates you might have from other companies. At the end of the day, we think you'll see that

H. Levenbaum Insurance Agency is still your best option to get the right coverage at the best price.

To review your current policy, please give us a call at 617.825.3900 or visit online at www.hlevenbauminsurance.com
